CANNED BEEF WAS VILE

Testimony of Colonel Powell Before the Court of Inquiry.

HIS COMMAND MADE SICK.

Refrigerated Meat Tasted as Though It Were Doped With Kerosene or Chloroform—Colonel Smith on the Food Supply.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The session of the Miles court of inquiry began with Colonel William H. Powell of the Seventh Infantry, who was stationed at Madison barracks at the outbreak of the war. He said that he started for Tampa on April 19 with a month's rations, and did not come in contact with the food from the commissary department at Tampa till about ready to start for Cuba. The regiment went through the Santiago campaign, and after the city was captured and the regiment quartered in the city he received requests from his men for money to buy stuff to eat. He investigated the so-called canned roast beef and had some of it served at his own table.

"I could not eat it," he continued. "It was a stringy, unwholesome looking mass, more like wet seaweed than anything else I can think of. The men were sick and debilitated, and could not keep it on their stomachs. We had all that time 152 sick. Soon after that the fresh beef began to arrive, and the men ate readily and began to pick up in health. Afterward we were moved out of the camp on San Juan battlefield. Here much of our meat spoiled before we could get it."

Regarding the refrigerated beef, Colonel Powell said there was little to be said against it except that some of it spoiled before it arrived. There were no facilities for cooking while in the city except a fire in the gutter and all food had to be boiled. Colonel Davis then produced a report from witness made from Governor's island on Sept. 20, in which he condemned the canned roast beef, saying it produced disorders of the stomach. Colonel Powell said he had made that report on an order from the adjutant general's office, and it was based on personal knowledge and reports from his company commanders. Colonel Powell concluded by reviewing the decrease in sickness after the issue of fresh beef and removal of the camp to the hills. Replying to a question, he said he attributed the sickness more to hygienic causes than to the food. His command was overworked and badly quartered and clothed, and appeared a complete wreck. He expressed inability to estimate the percentage of sickness due to the food.

Replying to a question, he said he had declared to fellow officers either at Santiago or Montauk that the refrigerated beef tasted as though it had come in contact with chloroform or kerosene. This was noticeably true when hroiled.

Colonel T. Smith, Thirteenth Infantry, who followed Colonel Powell, testified that the beef was good, "except on one day when it was spoiled. I understand that beef had been lying in the sun on the dock."

The canned roast beef he said was issued on the return trip. He did not know how much was used, but it was employed with tomatoes in making soup.

Colonel Smith said he had reason to believe very little canned roast beef had been eaten except in soup. Investigation made in September showed that it had given practically no satisfaction in either soup or when eaten from the can.

Admiral Schley's Statement.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Rear Admiral Schley, in answer to charges recently made against him, handed to the senate committee on naval affairs his story of the movements of his fleet at Santiago and elsewhere during the Spanish war. He ably defends his course throughout the campaign, and adds: "On May 31 I received a telegram from the commander-in-chief, congratulating me upon my success in locating and blockading the enemy's fleet at Santiago. If it was worthy of commendation at that time I am at a loss to understand how it could have grown into reprehensible conduct, as suggested by Admiral Sampson in his letter of July 10, 1898, some six weeks later."

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—The condition of Louis Gimm, the six-day cyclist, is improving. The rumors of foul play will not down in spite of the assertions of the attending physicians that Gimm's condition was a natural result of Gimm's complaint. The doctors will make a thorough examination of the patient to trace, if possible, the administration of poisonous drugs.

POPE ON AMERICANISM.

In a Letter to Cardinal Gibbons He Reproves Several Matters of Import.

Rome, Feb. 21.—A letter from the pope to Cardinal Gibbons is published, saying that "if the term Americanism signifies qualities peculiar to Americans and usages, adapted to their customs, then we have nothing to say against it; but if it denotes the opinions expressed in the 'Life of Father Hecker,' we are convinced that the American bishops will be the first to reject them."

The pope's letter especially reproves opinions concerning relaxation of discipline and non-observance of doctrinal points as a pretext for attracting dissenters to Catholicism, the direction of souls by inspiration of the Holy Ghost independent of priestly control, the diversion of virtue into active or passive criticisms of the old religious orders, and concerning unusual methods of preaching Catholicism to dissenters.

Senate Proceedings.

Washington, Feb. 21.—After a statement in the senate by Mr. Pettigrew, that he did not consider himself bound on national questions by the resolutions of the legislature of South Dakota, and a lively tilt between Mr. Allen, of Nebraska, and Mr. Quay, chairman of the public buildings committee, arising out of a charge by Mr. Allen that there was a secret public buildings combine in the senate, the house bill to relieve mortgages and notes from double taxation was passed, and also the postoffice appropriation bill after Mr. Butler's amendment to reduce the appropriation for railroad mail transportation was defeated. The senate then took up the army bill.

Sorry Conditions in Porto Rico.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Feb. 21.—Dr. Carroll, the commissioner recently appointed by the president to make a report of the conditions of Porto Rico, has just completed a tour of the island. He said: "I have found but little manufacturing industry. Agriculture is not prosperous, owing to the results of the late war and the low prices now paid for coffee and sugar, the chief product of the island. Spanish merchants who heretofore controlled the trade in Porto Rico have drained the agricultural classes by their usurious loans and exactions."

Chairman Jones' New Committee.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Chairman Jones of the Democratic national committee has appointed an advisory committee to the national campaign committee, the object being to advance the interests of the Democratic committee along the lines of the national platform. The committee of which Jones himself is a member, includes Stephen M. White, of California, D. J. Campau of Michigan, Norman Mack of New York, John P. Altgeld of Illinois, George Fred Williams of Massachusetts. The headquarters will be in Washington.

Electricity and Frozen Pipes.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 21.—Professor R. W. Wood, instructor in physics in the University of Wisconsin, has originated the idea of thawing out frozen water pipes with electricity, and made two successful experiments. He takes the electric current used for street lighting purposes, attaches one wire to the frozen pipe inside the cellar of one house and the other wire to a similar in the adjoining or any other house, thus completing the current. A current of about 50 volts is then turned on, heating the pipes and melting the ice within.

Sultan Backed Down.

Bombay, Feb. 21.—The sultan of Oman has revoked the grant of a coaling station to the French, under the British admiral's threats of a bombardment. The British warships Eclipse, Sphinx and Redbreast are lying off the port of Muscat. The sultan has issued a proclamation to the foregoing effect, and he will make a similar announcement in open Dunbar. The French consul has entered a protest.

Liquor Men Fail.

Maysville, Ky., Feb. 21.—The assignment of J. W. Watson & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, to Ben B. Poyntz caused a sensation in business circles. The liabilities are placed at $75,000 to $100,000, with assets less than half as much. A recent fire with insufficient insurance and slow collections are the causes of the embarrassment. The firm is composed of three sons of the late John W. Watson.

Held Office All His Life.

York, Pa., Feb. 21.—John Logan, 83, one of the oldest postmasters in the United States, is dead at his home at Cross Roads, this county. He was appointed postmaster during the administration of President Van Buren in 1837, and has filled the same continuously up to the time of his death.

London, Feb. 21.—The decoration of the imperial order of the crown of India has been conferred upon Lady Curzon, wife of the viceroy of India, and daughter of L. Z. Leiter, Chicago.

ARMY DISINTEGRATING

What General Miller Believes of the Rebel Forces at Iloilo.

HE NEEDS NO MORE TROOPS.

Has the Situation in Complete Control and Can Hold His Position With the Present Force—A Brush at Manila.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The war department has received the following Manila dispatch from General Otis:

"General Miller reports the insurgent forces, stationed a few miles out from Iloilo, to be disintegrating. He can maintain his position with present force. Business in city being resumed. He has sent up four representative men, officials, to capital of island of Negros, where American flag was raised and American protection requested against small insurgent force in island. Affairs there and in Cebu very encouraging."

"Affairs here quiet. Small insurgent force east of city driven away Monday with considerable loss to enemy."

"Additional casualties: Killed, Privates Alton A. Reinhart, John F. Adams, First Washington; wounded, Privates Arthur Buhl, John W. Parno, Max R. Kruse, Thomas C. Hadley, First California. Casualties near Iloilo, Panay Islands, Feb. 14: Eighteenth Infantry, killed, Corporal Robert S. Grisby; wounded, Sergeant Robert Jennings, thigh; Corporal James H. Saunders, nipple."

Will Be No Fight.

Pittsburg, Feb. 21.—President Keenan of the League of American Wheelmen says the reports that he cannot get a good man to take the chairmanship of the racing board is untrue. There are many good men offering, he says. Continuing, he said: "I have seen much in the newspapers about the prospects of a bitter fight between the League of American Wheelmen and the National Cycle Association. As it takes two to get up a fight I am safe in saying that there will not be one in this instance."

World Wide Depositions.

Oakland, Cal., Feb. 21.—The superior court of Alameda county has made an order directing that the depositions of Lord Churston and Dr. McRae of London and Walter Yarde-Buller, now residing in Bulawayo, Matabeleland, South Africa, be taken in the divorce proceedings instituted by attorneys representing Lady-Buller. Lord Churston and Dr. McRae are the London solicitors of the defendant.

New York's Unknown Dead.

New York, Feb. 21.—Packed away each in a refrigerator cell amid tons of ice there were in the morgue 170 bodies of the city's unknown homeless dead, the largest number ever gathered there since the present morgue was built. The cause of this was that the city burying ground on Hart's island was hemmed in by ice, and could not be approached by the steamers of the charity department.

Babies Perish in Flames.

Franklin, Pa., Feb. 21.—Four children of Mr. and Mrs. James Carson of Mix Run, near here, were burned to death. The house took fire, and Mrs. Carson, who was alone with her children, barely had time to escape by jumping from an upstairs window with one little one in her arms. Neighbors were aroused, and they sought in vain to rescue the other four children.

Held Up Motor Cars.

St. Louis, Feb. 21.—Three highwaymen held up nine cars in the heart of the business district about midnight. In nearly every instance the gripman and conductor resisted, and in all 29 shots were fired. Several of the conductors were robbed of all the money they had.

St. Paul, Feb. 21.—By a vote of 46 to 16, or four more than needed, the state senate passed over the governor's veto the bill appropriating $20,000 to pay bounties earned under the beet sugar bounty law. Four Democrats voted with Republicans in favor of the bill.

Canton, O., Feb. 21.—Mrs. George was taken into court for the arguments on the demurrer against her plea to the indictment, charging her with the murder of George D. Saxton. After a consultation of attorneys she was taken back to jail. It was said that as a result of the consultation some changes in the program had been made, but they were not announced.

Steel Workers Strike.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 21.—The Ohio Steel company refused to comply with a demand of the Hungarians to discharge Perry McDowd, a labor boss, and 135 struck. State Prohibitionists.

Delaware, O., Feb. 21.—It looks very much like Robert Candy, of Columbus, would be nominated for governor by the Prohibitionists at their state convention, which convenes in this city Wednesday. Mr. Candy has a clear field, his only opponent for the honor, Hon. E. J. Pinney, of Cleveland, having withdrawn from the race.

Oil Town Booming.

Scioto, O., Feb. 21.—The oil field here is eclipsing all previous records as to the number of wells drilled in during the same length of time, and also as to the staying qualities of town lot developments. Several thousand strangers are to be seen here daily. Hotels are doing a big business, and several new ones are projected.

Complete Subjugation of the Rebel Hordes in the Philippines.

OUTLOOK TICKLES CABINET.

General Otis' Latest Dispatch Concerning the Situation in the Malay Archipelago Discussed by McKinley's Advisors.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The cabinet at its meeting discussed the message received from General Otis at Manila and reached the conclusion that the situation generally in the Philippines was considerably improved. From other sources it was learned that insurgent leaders have admitted that when the United States forces are reinforced by the troops now nearing Manila their chances of success will be greatly reduced. This gives the administration much encouragement, and it is generally believed that the complete subjugation of the insurgents is a matter of a comparatively short time.

It is stated that General Gomez is now with General Brooke for the distribution of the $3,000,000, which it is expected will be paid to the Cuban troops within a very short time.

The report went upon the calendar.

Loubet's Message.

Paris, Feb. 21.—In President Loubet's message to both houses he says the regular transmission of power to the new president proves France's fidelity to the republic at a time when certain misguided persons are seeking to shake the confidence of the country in its institutions. Continuing, the president dwells upon the necessity of appeasement, union and respect for the essential organs of society, parliament, the magistracy, government and the national army.

THE BLIGHT OF TRUSTS.

Lyman L. George, a cotton goods manufacturer of Boston, in a recent interview, talks very pointedly on the matter of falling prices, the causes and the remedy, which is along the same line of the views expressed in his recent books on the subject of the decline of prices and the remedy for it.

Asked what his vast experience and acquaintance with business men in the East had taught him of the effect of falling prices of business in the country, he said:

"From only 530 failures in the northern states in 1865, with liabilities of $17,625,000, and in 1870 in our whole country of 3,551, with liabilities of $88,000,000, they reached a climax in 1893 of 15,508, with $382,000,000 liabilities. Ninety-five per cent. of the failures to-day are by men doing business on less than $10,000 capital. Falling prices thwart all business foresight, force the compulsory idleness of millions of working men and discourage every business venture until the velvet hand of the trust smoothly seizes each industry with fulsome promises of good to the people by great saving in the cost of production, doing away with agents and traveling men, and such arguments ad nauseam. To use Culpepper's famous words, 'Like the frogs of Egypt, they (trusts) have entered our dwellings. They sit by our fireside, they sup in our cups, they dip in our pans, they serve with the butler in his box. They have seared us from head to foot.'"

"The trust, with corruption for its cornerstone and tribute for its capstone, is the ideal system of the investing and moneyed classes; but it is the terror of the helpless masses, who are constantly being levied upon for greater tribute in their every purchase. It has but one buyer and he becomes dictator. The banks work with him in squeezing the holder of crops and merchandise during the selling season, thus forcing them to sell at the trust's figures. The rich love and the poor hate this monster. Queen Elizabeth, 400 years ago, dissolved every trust and thanked the business men, in a dignified speech, for calling attention to its necessity.

"Free silver is the weapon which must dissolve our trusts, as our President, sad as it is, owes his office to their existence, and thus is powerless to act.

"It was the demonetization of silver that caused our trusts to form—it is its restoration to its former place as the money of the people that will serve to dissolve these monster creations of greed.

"Increase the volume of our Nation's currency by remonetizing silver until prices of all property, commodities and labor have risen to the point where money accumulates in the pockets of the masses instead of glutting the vaults of the banks. Until the material well-being of the wealth producing and laboring classes is restored, when every workman owns a home, and that home comfortable and convenient, commodious and well-furnished; when every workman can afford to be the father of a family and is possessed of means sufficient to give his children a liberal education; when those who create the wealth of the Nation, who constitute eight-tenths of the people in it, shall, under the unwritten law decreeing the greatest good to the greatest number, receive their proper and equitable share of that wealth, the country from such a per centage of its people enjoying prosperity would make it impossible that the remaining two-tenths could experience any great hardships, no matter what the system that produced these results might be.

"Men only grasp truths as they become the sad-eyed victims of falsehoods. The victimized will vote, but their masters, the bondholders, will no more yield than did the Southern slaveholders in 1861. And for substantially the same reason, self-interest. There are, however, signs all along the line in Eastern States of an awakening from the long sleep which has nearly resulted in National death. Manufacturers no longer want protection—preferring free raw material, and progressing but a step farther, they want the great common people of this country to become sufficiently prosperous that they may be able to purchase the articles now manufactured in the East. Nothing can effect this change but an increase in the volume of our legal tender. From our present per capita circulation of money of $8, put us back to $35, which we had in 1895. 'Remonetize silver' may become the cry of all Eastern manufacturers and wage earners in 1900. Stranger things have happened."

Mr. WILL CURRAN is in charge of Holmes' drug store at Frankfort.

A TELEGRAM from Cincinnati announces that the price to be paid by the big distillery combine to James Walsh & Co., of Covington, for the Paris Distilling Company, is $550,000. This will include about 35,000 barrels of whiskey which the company has in its warehouses in Paris.

WANTED.

A Tax-Payer Asks For Information on the Turnpike Question.

Intimates There Was an Agreement For the Sale of Certain Roads Before Bonds Were Voted.

Editor Bulletin: I would like, through the medium of your columns, to know what agreement was made prior to the order of election, as to the free turnpike law and the issuing of bonds, between the free turnpike advocates and pike owners in regard to prices of roads.

It was currently stated before the election that the $60,000 would free all the roads in the county and that the pike owners by their attorneys had agreed to take that price, if the people would vote the tax.

As a tax-payer and one who voted for the bonds with that distinct understanding, I want to know whether my information was correct. If so, I want to know upon what basis of fair dealing the pike owners are now asking $83,000 for only three of the roads.

I think it is due the tax-payers that they should know the truth of this matter, and to that end would respectfully ask Dr. J. A. Reed, Hon. E. L. Worthington, County Judge C. D. Newell, L. W. Robertson and A. M. J. Cochran to make public the agreement which was made in regard to the bonds. I would also be glad to hear from any other gentleman who knows the facts.

The tax-payers want to know the exact truth of the matter.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. a bottle at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

Special Four Days' Sale.

Beginning Wednesday, closing Saturday we will hold an Embroidery, Lace and White Goods carnival.

DAINTY EMBROIDERIES.—New and clever designs, neatly embroidered on fine Nainsook, with the careful taste the slower working of the hand machine alone can give. The average embroideries, sold elsewhere are disappointing—they may be fairly attractive in design, but a few washings change them into tatters. It isn't the washer's fault, either. It is the fault of the embroidery maker, who has gone daft on the cheap idea. Such trash finds no entrance here. And that doesn't mean you'll pay too much for our Embroideries. They are doubly cheap—the prices are low, the goods will last. Embroideries for lingerie, Embroideries for women's dresses, embroideries for children's dresses. These as a hint of countless other bargains:

At 5c., good designs, strong worked figures for wear.

At 7½c., handsome French Cambric Hamburgs, Insertions and Edgings to match.

At 19c., Flouncings in choice and exclusive patterns.

You'd suppose them worth as much again—so they are by other folks' standard.

BUSINESS MEN.

Meeting to Be Held This Evening to Effect an Organization

To Work For the Improvement and Commercial Advancement of the City.

A meeting of the business men of Maysville will be held at the Council Chamber this evening at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of effecting an organization to work for the improvement and commercial progress of Maysville. Every one who has the future welfare of the city at heart and is willing to lend his efforts to the work is respectfully invited to be present.

That an organization of our wide-awake and enterprising citizens can accomplish much good along the lines mentioned, all will concede. Other cities have been benefitted by such organizations, and what has been done elsewhere can be done in Maysville.

The Lexington Herald, in speaking of the work accomplished by the Chamber of Commerce of that city, says:

"Its course in the past has been of untold value to the city and the plan outlined for the future promises to be of greater value. Since its organization the Chamber of Commerce has been the means of bringing to Lexington some of the best industries the city has and it proposes to accomplish even more this year if the merchants will co-operate with it. * * * Shortly after it was organized the water works question came up and the Chamber took it in hand and by its efforts the splendid water system of the city was secured. During those days the city had no public building and no free mail delivery system, but the Chamber of Commerce was instrumental in securing both, together with many other improvements which have gone a great way toward making a city of Lexington."

The Modern Way

THE DISSOLUTION SALE

Still continues. The question that has been asked us so often in the past few days is, "Are you really going out of business, or are you just doing like so many others—trying to reduce your stock at this the dullest season of the year?" Those who have been in and learned the prices that we are making on our fine goods have no doubts. You who have been in, and who do not avail yourselves of the benefits of this, the greatest sacrifice sale ever made in this city, will be the losers.

We state most positively that Lee & Ballenger are going out of business, and are selling their entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Tailor-made Clothing and Men's Furnishings of every kind, Hats and Caps

Our line of FINE STIFF HATS we believe to be one of the best stocks in the State. All of these goods will be offered and sold at less than half their real value. This sale will continue until the whole stock is sold out and the business of the firm settled up. It will pay you to see these goods for present or future use. You will surely never again get them so cheap. If we were going to continue in business we would not think of selling these goods at the prices they are going for.

WE ASK YOU TO COME IN AND SEE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A GENUINE CLOSING-OUT-TO-QUIT-BUSINESS SALE AND THE FAKES SO FREQUENTLY ADVERTISED!

In twenty years in business in this city we have never advertised anything that we did not do. We stand upon our record. This sale is the real thing—closing out dissolution to retire from business at prices never before equaled and perhaps never will be again. You can't afford to miss it. Respectfully,
